Marriage of Col. Sam Colt—A Gala Day among his Friends.

An event of some interest to Col. Colt. (the famous inventor of the Repeating Pistols,) as well as to his personal friends, occurred yesterday: (Thursday.) This was nothing less than the marriage of the gallant Colonel. The happy event transpired at 2 o'clock P. M. at the house of the bride, Miss Elizabeth Jarvis, of Middletown, and the ceremony was performed in the Episcopal Church, by Rt. Rev Bishop Brownell. Miss J. is the daughter of Rev. Wm. Jarvis, of Middletown. A host of the friends of both parties were present to witness the celebration of the nuptials, and after the ceremony there was a large reception party at the house of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jarvis, on Washington street.

A large crowd of friends and invited guests went down from this city on the steamboat Washington Irring, which had been chartered by the Colonel for that purpose. The steamer started from the wharf at the foot of Van Dyke Avenue in front of the armory at 12 clock, an immense concourse of spectators being gathered upon the Dyke and in the sur-rounding buildings to witness the departure.— The steamer was gaily decorated with flags, always acted, and in violation of the solemn and as she swung out into the stream, a grand salute of rifles was fired from the enpola of the Armory by a company of the workman, and this was twice repeated as she was getting under way. The Office Buildings were gally deressed with flage, &c , and the scene was altogether a lively one.

Among the invited quests who were present were Commodore Perry, commander of the Japan Expedition, and Licut. Bout and Renshaw, who accompained the Commodoro on that famous expedition; Hugh Rose, Esq., of Charleston, S. C.; Col. Hazard, of Emield: L. D. Shamm, former Purser in the Navy; and a number of others. These (with the exception of Lieut. Bent,) all went down on the boat at 12 o'clock, together with a large company of passengers. Col Colt, accompanied by Lieut. Bent, went down in a private carriage, some hours earlier.

After the reception party, Col. C. accompainal bo his bride, took the evening express train for New York. They stop at the St. Nicholas Hotel, where they are to give a large reception party, and to-morrow noon will sail in the Baltic for Europe. They may remain abroad for a year, as Col. Colt intends to travel somewhat at leisure over a considerable part of the Contiment. As educated and competent linguist the finger and ear rings of the women. . As accompanies them. Cot. Colt intends to be in Russia at the time of the coronation of the Em peror in August, and will witness that ceremosny in company with Gov. Seymour, the American Minister at St. Petersburg, and the Russian Court.

The bridal cake made for the occasion was a splendid specimen of the confectioner,s skill. There were three of the cakes, about three feet in height and some five feet each in circum erwith "frosting," and bore the Colt coat at arms says: on the top-eousisting of a number of colts, rampant, with other devices. In the depress sion upon the center of the top was a large colt, confectioner's skill. The maker is M. Charles, in Albany street, and the opinion of several who have seen some of the most elaborate specimens of ornamental cake in Paris and London, is that these have never been surpassed for beauty and taste.

One hundred of the mechanics coployed by Col. Colt go down to New York, this evening, to see him off. The Armory band accompanies them.—Hartford Times.

The Times is printed on Applegath's eight cylinder press, a style somewhat resembling Hoe's, but with the cylinders standing up right, and requires, with all its necessary feeding apparatus. &c., far more space than Hoe's. and twice the the number of men. The Times is printed on the eight cylinder press described at the rate of less than 9,000 impressions per hour, while the Tribune, of very nearly the same size, is slowly and carefully printed on the six cylinder Hoe's press at a more rapid rate, the Just received at the 167,000 of the Weekly requiring but 18 hours for each side, including the necessary stoppages S. PROGRESS OF PRINTING IN COLORS.-Until quite recently the process of printing in variegated colors consisted either in printing with coloress sizing, and then brushing over with bronzes of various light hues, or printing separately with partial forms the red, and blue, and other portions of the sheet. Mr. Stephen Brown of Syracuse has constructed two examples of a press invented by him for printing as many colors as may be desired at one impression. The form is made in sections which separate and receive different colors, and then close and give the impression. The smallest of these presses have been lately exhibited at Measrs. Wells & Webb's warehouse in this city, and proved capable of printing, 1,500 cards ; per hour. But Mesers, A. M. & G. H. Bab-rent for, cook have manufactured at Westerly, R. Congressional.

Hanzas in the Senate! In the Senate, on the 16th inst., Mr. Clayton said t would be remembered that he had carefully ibstained from uttering, during the present a ssion, one word calculated to add to the excitement growing out of the present disturbance in Kansas. He had endeavored to concilance in Kansas. He had endeavored to concil-iate all parties, that he might, on a suitable SHAWLS AND MANTELLAS of all kinds occa ion, present a measure of justice, harmony ar d peace.

He now rose to make a proposition designed to propitiate no particular party or section. He would not present his bill as a partizan of any cand date for the Presidency; like the sailor, he desired to go in a gang by himself. He had objections to Kansas coming into the 141

Union now as a Sovereign State. One reason was, that it has not a federal population of 20,-000, exclusive of Indians and others not taxed; there is a feeling in the North which, if suffered to continue, will result in a serious injury to the common Union; he stated his objections both to Mr. Douglas' and to Mr. Seward's bills, proposing the admission of Kansas, and referred to the latest accounts from the territory, asking, shall we sit by when forty men were recently slain, and the excitement constantly increasing, and towns sacked and plundered, without endeavoring to avoid this distressing state of affairs. It is only by justice that peace can be restored.

In the afternoon of the same day, the Senate adopted a resolution, calling for the correspondence between this country and England, on the maritime laws, that free ships make free good s.

Among them are Yankee Sull van and D. Broderick, the latter of whom was at one time the Democratic candidate for the J. S. Senate.

It is stated on good authority that all the State officers intend to resign, and the people are inclined to look on the Vigilance Committeers the law givers.

It is rumored that a project for a new treaty between the United States and Nicaragua is entertained, and, if consumnated, as it is the't it will be, it will have an important bearing on the destinies of Nicaragua and the Central Am rican States.
